

Tickle the Ivories
Performance Schedule

WEEK ELEVEN

Monday

10 September 2012

1) Lower South John Street Piano
(Near Natwest)

11am-12noon Luke Yates

Come and enjoy an eclectic mix of great music, you can even sing along or request a song!

1pm-2pm Johnny Larsen

From Bon Jovi, to War of the Worlds. Solo Piano, and maybe some vocals for good measure...come & judge for yourselves!

5pm-6pm Bobby Locke

Young musician returns playing a wide range of piano pieces, from jazz and classical to musical theatre.

2) Paradise Street Piano
(Near the bottom of the zigzag steps to the ODEON)

11am-12noon Jim White

Unique renditions of modern classics!

1pm-2pm David Antrobus

Wirral based solo pianist playing great selection of easy listing in his own unique style

4pm-5pm Bobby Locke

Young musician returns playing a wide range of piano pieces, from jazz and classical to musical theatre.

3) College Lane Piano
(Near Waterstones)

12noon - 1pm Luke Yates

Come and enjoy an eclectic mix of great music, you can even sing along or request a song!

2pm-3pm Frank McFarlane

A blind performer with many years of tickling the ivories under his belt. So come and enjoy songs from the shows, and maybe a classical piece thrown in for good measure!

6pm-7pm Robert McDonald

Performing a great selection of his own fascinating compositions.

4) Sugar House Steps Piano (Near John Lewis)

12noon-1pm David Antrobus

Wirral based solo pianist playing great selection of easy listing in his own unique style

1pm-2pm Matthew Coppell

A generous helping of pop/rock piano covers from the 1970's to the present day. Whether you love ABBA or Alice Cooper, there's something for you here!

5pm-6pm Anthony Proctor

Singer/Songwriter Anthony Proctor performs piano versions of his favourite songs and his own material.

5) Up on the Galleria Piano (Opposite the ODEON entrance)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

6) Tickle on Tour: Pier Head Ferry Terminal (Opposite the 'Three Graces' buildings at the Waterfront)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

Tuesday

11 September 2012

1) Lower South John Street Piano (Near Natwest)

11am-12noon Christopher Schlechte-Bond

From Beethoven to Rachmaninoff, Chopin to Liszt, Satie to Einaudi and many more.
Lots and lots of awesome classical music at its very best!

1pm-2pm Jim White

Unique renditions of modern classics!

5pm-6pm Lesley-Anne Goode and her Rock 'n' Roll Piano

16 year old self taught pianist from the Wirral playing a great medley of Rock 'n' Roll music www.Lesley-Anne.com

2) Paradise Street Piano (Near the bottom of the zigzag steps to the ODEON)

11am-12noon Luke Yates

Come and enjoy an eclectic mix of great music, you can even sing along or request a song!

1pm-2pm Matthew Coppell

A generous helping of pop/rock piano covers from the 1970's to the present day. Whether you love ABBA or Alice Cooper, there's something for you here!

3) College Lane Piano (Near Waterstones)

12noon - 1pm Johnny Larsen

From Bon Jovi, to War of the Worlds. Solo Piano, and maybe some vocals for good measure...come & judge for yourselves!

2pm-3pm David Antrobus

Wirral based solo pianist playing great selection of easy listing in his own unique style

6pm-7pm David Atkinson

Playing a wide variety of classical, popular plus a few pieces of improvisation. A mixed variety that will calm and exhilarate your ears!

4) Sugar House Steps Piano (Near John Lewis)

12noon-1pm Christopher Schlechte-Bond

From Beethoven to Rachmaninoff, Chopin to Liszt, Satie to Einaudi and many more.
Lots and lots of awesome classical music at its very best!

1pm-2pm David Antrobus

Wirral based solo pianist playing great selection of easy listing in his own unique style

5) Up on the Galleria Piano
(Opposite the ODEON entrance)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

6) Tickle on Tour: Pier Head Ferry Terminal
(Opposite the 'Three Graces' buildings at the Waterfront)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

Wednesday
12 September 2012

1) Lower South John Street Piano
(Near Natwest)

12noon-1pm Luke Yates

Come and enjoy an eclectic mix of great music, you can even sing along or request a song!

1pm-2pm Frank McFarlane

A blind performer with many years of tickling the ivories under his belt. So come and enjoy songs from the shows, and maybe a classical piece thrown in for good measure!

6pm-7pm David Atkinson

Playing a wide variety of classical, popular plus a few pieces of improvisation. A mixed variety that will calm and exhilarate your ears!

2) Paradise Street Piano
(Near the bottom of the zigzag steps to the ODEON)

11am-12noon John Prince

Easy listening music from Stevie Wonder, to The Beatles, to Sinatra and many more. From the forties to the present-day, come and enjoy!

1pm-2pm Christopher Schlechte-Bond

From Beethoven to Rachmaninoff, Chopin to Liszt, Satie to Einaudi and many more.
Lots and lots of awesome classical music at its very best!

4pm-5pm Carpe Diem

A blend of classical and pop music to brighten your day!

3) College Lane Piano (Near Waterstones)

12noon - 1pm Christopher Schlechte-Bond

From Beethoven to Rachmaninoff, Chopin to Liszt, Satie to Einaudi and many more.
Lots and lots of awesome classical music at its very best!

2pm-3pm Andy McGinn

Pop and classical piano favourites from Adel to Chopin - come and enjoy!

6pm-7pm John Wishart

Liverpool Cultural Champion plays a joyful mix of his own material and rock/pop covers.
Stop, listen and join in if you know the words!

4) Sugar House Steps Piano (Near John Lewis)

12noon-1pm Matthew Coppell

A generous helping of pop/rock piano covers from the 1970's to the present day.
Whether you love ABBA or Alice Cooper, there's something for you here!

1pm-2pm Mike Neary

Unique reworkings of songs by Kate Bush, Peter Gabriel, Paul McCartney, Zero 7,
Jakaata, Paul Simon, Jon Lord and more. Enjoy!!

5pm-6pm Bobby Locke

Young musician returns playing a wide range of piano pieces, from jazz and classical to musical theatre.

5) Up on the Galleria Piano (Opposite the ODEON entrance)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

6) Tickle on Tour: Pier Head Ferry Terminal (Opposite the 'Three Graces' buildings at the Waterfront)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

Thursday

13 September 2012

ALL PIANOS FREE PLAY ALL DAY

Friday

14 September 2012

1) Lower South John Street Piano (Near Natwest)

11am-12noon Jim White

Unique renditions of modern classics!

1pm-2pm Andy McGinn

Pop and classical piano favourites from Adele to Chopin - come and enjoy!

6pm-7pm David Atkinson

Playing a wide variety of classical, popular plus a few pieces of improvisation. A mixed variety that will calm and exhilarate your ears!

2) Paradise Street Piano (Near the bottom of the zigzag steps to the ODEON)

11am-12noon Matthew Coppel

A generous helping of pop/rock piano covers from the 1970's to the present day. Whether you love ABBA or Alice Cooper, there's something for you here!

1pm-2pm Alan Derrick

Performing a great selection of Broadway classics from the likes of George Gershwin and Cole Porter, with some improvised jazz and blues for good measure!

4pm-5pm John Wishart

Liverpool Cultural Champion plays a joyful mix of his own material and rock/pop covers. Stop, listen and join in if you know the words!

3) College Lane Piano

(Near Waterstones)

12noon - 1pm Johnny Larsen

From Bon Jovi, to War of the Worlds. Solo Piano, and maybe some vocals for good measure...come & judge for yourselves!

2pm-3pm John Prince

Easy listening music from Stevie Wonder, to The Beatles, to Sinatra and many more. From the forties to the present-day, come and enjoy!

5pm-6pm Liverpool Chamber Choir

Enjoy an exhilarating and uplifting performance by this newly formed but very experienced Liverpool Choir!

4) Sugar House Steps Piano
(Near John Lewis)

12noon-1pm Michael 'Mick' Moon

One of Liverpool's most enduring and well travelled piano bar performers having been on the scene since the late fifties! Come and enjoy his great repertoire

2pm-3pm Frank McFarlane

A blind performer with many years of tickling the ivories under his belt. So come and enjoy songs from the shows, and maybe a classical piece thrown in for good measure!

6pm-7pm Liverpool Chamber Choir

Enjoy an exhilarating and uplifting performance by this newly formed but very experienced Liverpool Choir!

5) Up on the Galleria Piano
(Opposite the ODEON entrance)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

6) Tickle on Tour: Pier Head Ferry Terminal
(Opposite the 'Three Graces' buildings at the Waterfront)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

Saturday

15 September 2012

1) Lower South John Street Piano (Near Natwest)

11am-12noon Birkenhead Operatic Society Trust

A taste of Musical Theatre including songs from the family favourite 'The Sound of Music'; a taster from their forthcoming show at the Liverpool Empire on 7-10 Nov 2012.

2pm-3pm St Bertilines Church Choir

Runcorn based Church Choir performing a great selection of modern, lively church songs.

6pm-7pm Liverpool Comhaltas Youth Band

Traditional Irish tunes and songs played by young musicians from the Liverpool Irish Centre. Including piano, accordions, whistles, fiddles banjos, bodhrans, drums and some fine voices.

2) Paradise Street Piano (Near the bottom of the zigzag steps to the ODEON)

11am-12noon David Atkinson

Playing a wide variety of classical, popular plus a few pieces of improvisation. A mixed variety that will calm and exhilarate your ears!

1pm-2pm Hollie B

I like to play pop music like Emile Sande and Adele. I learn and play the piano mostly by ear.

4pm-5pm Bolshy

Young DIY ska-punk band who will brighten your day and get you dancing!

3) College Lane Piano (Near Waterstones)

11am -12noon Liverpool Community Choir

Singing a medley of well known and best loved songs from Cole Porter to Coldplay. Join in if you know the words!

2pm-3pm Billy the Hat

A well known Liverpool performer playing a great selection of tunes from boogie woogie to jazz to blues to ragtime. A little bit of something for everybody!

5pm-6pm Harriet Jane

A young singer-songwriter from the Wirral, winner of the Liverpool One's Busking It Competition. She will be performing covers in her very own style plus some of her own material.

4) Sugar House Steps Piano (Near John Lewis)

12noon-1pm Gerry Jones

A Liverpool musician, playing by ear whatever takes his fancy, from a very wide range of styles. By all means ask for requests; you might be surprised!

1pm-2pm James McEvoy-Stevenson

A young pianist with a real passion for music!

5pm-6pm Mike Neary

Unique reworkings of songs by Kate Bush, Peter Gabriel, Paul McCartney, Zero 7, Jakaata, Paul Simon, Jon Lord and more. Enjoy!!

5) Up on the Galleria Piano (Opposite the ODEON entrance)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

6) Tickle on Tour: Pier Head Ferry Terminal (Opposite the 'Three Graces' buildings at the Waterfront)

11am-12noon Jay Bradbury

Liverpool based pianist providing various styles of music arranged for solo piano, including Easy Listening, Classical and Jazz. www.jaybmusic.co.uk

1pm-2pm Birkenhead Operatic Society Trust

A taste of Musical Theatre including songs from the family favourite 'The Sound of Music'; a taster from their forthcoming show at the Liverpool Empire on 7-10 Nov 2012.

3pm-4pm Singing Our Socks off

We are passionate about everybody singing together. We want to build confidence, improve health and wellbeing and allow everyone to participate. Come and join us and have lots of fun!

Sunday

16 September 2012

1) Lower South John Street Piano
(Near Natwest)

12noon-1pm John Prince

Easy listening music from Stevie Wonder, to The Beatles, to Sinatra and many more. From the forties to the present-day, come and enjoy!

2pm-3pm James McEvoy-Stevenson

A young pianist with a real passion for music!

4pm-5pm Lesley-Anne Goode and her Rock 'n' Roll Piano

16 year old self taught pianist from the Wirral playing a great medley of Rock 'n' Roll music www.Lesley-Anne.com

2) Paradise Street Piano
(Near the bottom of the zigzag steps to the ODEON)

11am-12noon Johnny Larsen

From Bon Jovi, to War of the Worlds. Solo Piano, and maybe some vocals for good measure...come & judge for yourselves!

1pm-2pm David Antrobus

Wirral based solo pianist playing great selection of easy listing in his own unique style

4pm-5pm Anthony Proctor

Singer/Songwriter Anthony Proctor performs piano versions of his favourite songs and his own material.

3) College Lane Piano
(Near Waterstones)

12noon - 1pm The Hoopettes

Heather will be joined by her dad and friends performing songs on her 15th birthday!

2pm-3pm John Wishart

Liverpool Cultural Champion plays a joyful mix of his own material and rock/pop covers. Stop, listen and join in if you know the words!

3pm-4pm On My Way

Rock pop soul and musical theatre from talented singer and pianist. Look out for surprise guests!

4) Sugar House Steps Piano
(Near John Lewis)

12noon-1pm David Antrobus

Wirral based solo pianist playing great selection of easy listing in his own unique style

2pm-4pm Showstoppers

A performance from stage, screen and TV, by community band with ages from 8 to 80.

4pm-5pm Bobby Locke

Young musician returns playing a wide range of piano pieces, from jazz and classical to musical theatre.

5) Up on the Galleria Piano
(Opposite the ODEON entrance)

FREE PLAY ALL DAY

6) Tickle on Tour: Pier Head Ferry Terminal
(Opposite the 'Three Graces' buildings at the Waterfront)

11am-12noon On My Way

Rock pop soul and musical theatre from talented singer and pianist. Look out for surprise guests!

1pm-2pm Johnny Larsen

From Bon Jovi, to War of the Worlds. Solo Piano, and maybe some vocals for good measure...come & judge for yourselves!

3pm-4pm Luke Yates

Come and enjoy an eclectic mix of great music, you can even sing along or request a song!